Senate

Chamber Action

Routine Proceedings, pages 8038–8181

Bills Introduced: 29 bills and 1 resolution was introduced, as follows: S. 1243–1271; and S.J. Res. 78.

Pages 8092–8093

Bill Reported: Report was made as follows:

S. 590, requiring that future appointments of certain officers in the Executive Office of the President be subject to confirmation by the Senate, no written report—referred to Committee on Armed Services for a period expiring not later than April 11, 1973.

Measures Passed:

Highways: By 77 yeas to 5 nays, Senate passed S. 502, proposed Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1973, after agreeing to committee amendment in the nature of a substitute, to which Senate first had taken action on proposed amendments thereto, as follows:

Adopted:

(1) Robert C. Byrd amendment authorizing $6 million for a railroad relocation demonstration project at Wheeling, W. Va.;

(2) Scott, of Pennsylvania, amendment to designate as the "Dwight D. Eisenhower Highway" the coast-to-coast interstate segments consisting of I–70 between Washington, D.C., and Denver, I–25 between Denver and Cheyenne, and I–80 between Cheyenne and San Francisco;

(3) Gurney amendment to amend section 147 so as to direct the Secretary of Transportation to establish procedures which will implement his responsibilities regarding toll bridge rates;

(4) Cotton amendment expressing sense of the Congress that the Secretary of Transportation reconsider application of New Hampshire concerning highway construction;

(5) Ribicoff amendment requiring that Secretary of Transportation not approve any project which would significantly affect the highway system of a contiguous State without the concurrence of that State;

(6) Weicker amendment stipulating that any highway construction project funded with Federal money must be part of an overall transportation plan rather than simply a highway plan;

(7) Dole amendment authorizing feasibility studies of interstate route extensions north from Salina, Kans., and southwest from Wichita;

(8) Domenici amendment, as amended by Burdick substitute, stating sense of the Congress that subsection (in section 105) stipulating that each State will receive at least one-half of 1 percent of total apportionments for the Interstate System is an interim provision to be reconsidered at the expiration of this authorization;

(9) Baker amendment modifying the so-called "pass through" provision so as to minimize conflict with State Transportation Plans; and

(10) Baker amendment to provide a tax study relative to mass transportation systems which would afford the basis for preserving the "pay-as-you-go" feature of the Trust Fund.

Rejected:

(1) Pearson amendment No. 33, to add a new section to provide funding for economic growth center development highways;

(2) By 43 yeas to 50 nays, Buckley amendment to strike from the bill section 148, providing for the termination of the San Antonio North Expressway as a Federal aid project;

(3) By 23 yeas to 67 nays, Hansen amendment No. 28, to repeal certain vehicle weight and width limitations on the Interstate System;

(4) Beall amendment to authorize $10 million for a highspeed transportation demonstration project from Washington, D.C., to Friendship International Airport; and

(5) By 14 yeas to 68 nays, Fannin amendment increasing from 96 inches to 102 inches maximum width of buses which may use interstate highways.

Rural Electrification Act: By a yea-and-nay vote of 317 yeas to 92 nays, the House passed H.R. 5683, to amend the Rural Electrification Act of 1936, as amended, to establish a Rural Electrification and Telephone Revolving Fund to provide adequate funds for rural electric and telephone systems through insured and guaranteed loans at interest rates which will allow them to achieve the objectives of the act.

A point of order was overruled against an amendment that was eventually agreed to that forbids the use of REA funds outside the United States or any of its possessions.

By a recorded vote of 162 ayes to 244 noes, rejected an amendment in the nature of a substitute that sought to insert the text of H.R. 5536.

Rejected an amendment that sought to strike out language that directs the Administrator to make full use of the funds for loans up to the limits set by Congress and provides that such loans shall be excluded from the budget totals of the Government and exempt from expenditure ceilings (rejected by a division vote of 98 yeas to 141 nays).

Subsequently, this passage was vacated, and S. 394, a similar Senate-passed bill was passed in lieu after being amended to contain the language of the House bill as passed.

Agreed to amend the title of the bill.

The House insisted on its amendments, and asked a conference with the Senate. Appointed as conferees: Representatives Poage, Stubblefield, Sisk, Denholm, Teague of California, Wampler, and Goodling.

H. Res. 337, the rule under which the bill was considered, was adopted earlier by a voice vote. Agreed to the previous question on the rule by a yea-and-nay vote of 244 yeas to 170 nays. Pages 10918–10939

Referral: One Senate-passed measure was referred to the appropriate House committee. Page 10958

Immediate Civil Service retirement: H.R. 6077, to permit immediate retirement of certain Federal employees.

Sent to the Senate, amended:

Mandatory Civil Service retirement: H.R. 3798, to provide for mandatory retirement of employees upon attainment of seventy years of age and completion of 5 years of service. Page 12501

Presidential Message—National Stockpiles: Received and read a message from the President wherein he asks Congress for the authority to dispose of various materials in the national and supplemental stockpiles which are no longer necessary to keep in reserve to protect our national security—referred to the Committee on Armed Services and ordered printed (H. Doc. 93–84). Pages 12509–12510

Economic Stabilization: By a yea-and-nay vote of 293 yeas to 114 nays, the House passed H.R. 6168, to amend and extend the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970.

By a yea-and-nay vote of 164 yeas to 243 nays, rejected a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Banking and Currency.

Agreed to the Widnall amendment in the nature of a substitute which provides for a 1-year extension of the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970;

Agreed to an amendment to the Widnall amendment requiring that hearings be held before an agency reduces wages or salaries and that a statement of explanation shall be written to the parties involved within 30 days (agreed to by a recorded vote of 271 ayes to 132 noes); and

Agreed to an amendment to the Widnall amendment insuring that reasonable contributions made by employers to all legitimate fringe benefit plans are not considered wages and salaries for the purposes of wage stabilization.

Rejected the following amendments to the Widnall amendment:

An amendment that seeks to impose a ceiling on prices at levels no higher than those on April 16, 1973, except agricultural prices at the farm level (rejected by a recorded vote of 139 ayes to 263 noes);

A substitute that seeks to extend the Economic Stabilization Act of 1970 for 60 days and directs the President to develop a program to stabilize interest rates, rents, prices, and wages and transmit the program to Congress by May 15, 1973 (rejected by a recorded vote of 151 ayes to 253 noes);

An amendment that seeks to authorize the President to stabilize residential rents at levels prevailing on April 15, 1973, and allows a 2.5 per centum increase annually;

An amendment that seeks to establish a Wage Board for the purposes of administering this act;

An amendment that seeks to authorize and direct the President to stabilize rents at levels prevailing on January 10, 1973 (rejected by a recorded vote of 173 ayes to 225 noes with 6 voting "present");

An amendment that seeks to authorize the President to stabilize rents at levels prevailing on January 10, 1973 and allows for a 2.5 per centum increase annually (rejected by a recorded vote of 147 ayes to 250 noes with 5 voting "present"); and

An amendment that seeks to impose a ceiling on all food prices at levels no higher than those prevailing on March 16, 1973, and to stabilize rents at levels prevailing on January 10, 1973 (rejected by a recorded vote of 101 ayes to 303 noes).

Subsequently, this passage was vacated and a similar Senate-passed bill S. 398, was passed in lieu after being amended to contain the provisions of the House bill as passed.

House insisted on its amendment to S. 398; and asked a conference with the Senate. Appointed as conferees: Representatives Patman, Barrett, Sullivan, Reuss, St Germain, Annunzio, Rees, Cotter, Mitchell of Maryland, Widnall, Johnson of Pennsylvania, J. William Stanton, Blackburn, Brown of Michigan, and Wylie.

By a yea-and-nay vote of 147 yeas to 258 nays, the House failed to order the previous question on H. Res. 357, the rule under which the bill was considered, and subsequently agreed to an amendment to the rule which made in order the text of H.R. 2099 as an amendment in the nature of a substitute for the committee bill; the amendment also struck out language providing for the consideration of the amendments recommended by the Committee on Banking and Currency printed in H.R. 6168. The rule was agreed to by a voice vote. Pages 12501–12552

Senate

Chamber Action

Routine Proceedings, pages 16374–16481

Bills Introduced: 11 bills were introduced, as follows: S. 1860–1870. Pages 16381–16382

Bills Reported: Reports were made as follows:

S. 1317, authorizing approximately $194 million for the U.S. Information Agency for fiscal year 1974, with an amendment (S. Rept. 93–168); Page 16381

S. 1384, authorizing the transfer to the Navajo Tribe of Indians of certain fees collected from the Rainbow Bridge floating concession in the Glen Canyon National Recreation Area, Ariz. and Utah (S. Rept. 93–169); and Page 16381

S. 372, to relieve broadcasters of the equal time requirements of section 315 of the Communications Act as it relates to Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates, with amendments (S. Rept. 93–170). Under authority of the order of the Senate of January 23, 1973, the bill was referred to the Committee on Rules and Administration, to report no later than 30 days. Page 16381

Bills Referred: Four House-passed bills were referred to appropriate Senate committees. Page 16374

Measures Passed:

Interest rates: By vote of 76 yeas, with 8 voting present, Senate passed S. 1798, extending for 1 year authority for the regulation of interest rates, after agreeing to two amendments proposed thereto, as follows:

(1) Proxmire amendment to change from December 31, 1974, to December 31, 1973, the date for the expiration of the moratorium on conversions; and Page 16484

(2) By 43 yeas to 33 nays, with 8 voting present, Brock amendment to confine to the States of Massachusetts and New Hampshire the practice under which mutual savings banks offer the public an interest return on checking accounts (so-called NOW accounts). Page 16485

Subsequently, Senate took from the desk and passed the House companion measure, H.R. 6370, after striking all after the enacting clause and inserting the provisions of S. 1798, as passed. Senate then insisted on its amendments, requested conference with the House, and appointed as conferees Senators Sparkman, Proxmire, Williams, McIntyre, Tower, Bennett, and Brooke. Pages 16502–16503

S. 1798 was then indefinitely postponed. Pages 16481–16503

OMB Director: Senate considered S. 518, providing that appointments to the offices of Director and Deputy Director of the Office of Management and Budget shall be subject to confirmation by the Senate, returned on Friday, May 18, by the President without his approval, and, by 62 yeas to 22 nays, two-thirds of the Senators present and voting having voted in the affirmative, passed the bill, the objections of the President to the contrary notwithstanding. This action cleared the measure for action of the House. Pages 16503–16507

Historical and archeological data: Senate took from calendar, passed without amendment, and cleared for the House S. 514, proposing additional criteria for preserving and protecting archeological study sites. Pages 16378–16379

Calendar Call: On call of the calendar, Senate passed with committee amendments and cleared for the House the following three bills:

Historic properties: S. 1201, establishing a program for the preservation of additional historic properties throughout the Nation.

Trust Territory: S. 1385, authorizing funds for continuance of civil government for the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

Indian claims: S. 1016, to provide alternative methods for the disposition of certain Indian judgment funds. Pages 16375–16377

Interstate Highways: Senate laid down for further consideration tomorrow S. 1808, apportioning funds for the National System of Interstate and Defense Highways. Page 16510

Communication Referrals: By unanimous consent, Committee on the Judiciary was discharged from the further consideration of a communication from the Director of the Office of Management and Budget received on May 14, 1973, relating to establishment of a Legal Services Corps, and such communication was ordered held at the desk until jurisdiction is resolved. Page 16377

It was also agreed that, upon receipt by the Senate, a message on minority business enterprise will be held at the desk until further action is agreed upon. Page 16494

Nominations: Senate received the following nominations:

Matthew J. Harvey, of Maryland, to be an Assistant Administrator of the Agency for International Development;

Arthur F. Sampson, of Pennsylvania, to be Administrator of General Services;

Grady Perry, Jr., of Alabama, to be a member of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board; and

One Air Force nomination in the rank of general. Page 16510

Record Votes: Three record votes were taken today. Pages 16494, 16500, 16507

Adjournment: Senate met at noon and adjourned at 5:10 p.m. Page 16510

Gambling Review Commission: The Speaker appointed Representatives Hanley, Carney of Ohio, Hogan, and Hunt, as members of the Commission on the Review of the National Policy Toward Gambling. Page 19238

Peace Corps Authorization: By a yea-and-nay vote of 329 yeas to 64 nays, the House agreed to the conference report on H.R. 5293, authorizing additional appropriations for the Peace Corps; clearing the measure for Senate action. Pages 19238–19240

Late Reports: Committee on Rules received permission to file certain privileged reports by midnight tonight. Pages 19240–19241

Legal Services Funds: By a yea-and-nay vote of 257 yeas to 149 nays, the House passed H.R. 77, to permit employee contributions to jointly administered trust funds established by labor organizations to defray costs of legal services.

Agreed to the committee amendments.

Agreed to an amendment to a committee amendment that allows employees to select any attorney of his choice, rather than the choice of his union (agreed to by a recorded vote of 279 ayes to 126 noes, with 1 voting "present").

Rejected an amendment that sought to include legal services for employees to appeal a fine or disciplinary action initiated by the union.

Rejected an amendment that specified legal service trust funds as a "permissive" subject of collective bargaining, and refusal to bargain in good faith would not constitute an unfair labor practice (rejected by a recorded vote of 177 ayes to 223 noes); and

Rejected an amendment to the previous amendment that sought to strike out language that specifies as an unfair labor practice the unilateral modification or termination of the legal services trust fund agreement, or failure or refusal to bargain in good faith in the next subsequent contract negotiation between the same parties (rejected by a recorded vote of 111 ayes to 293 noes).

Subsequently, this passage was vacated, and S. 1423, a similar Senate-passed bill, was passed in lieu after being amended to contain the language of the House bill as passed.

Agreed to amend the title of the House bill.

House insisted on its amendment and asked a conference with the Senate. Appointed as conferees: Representatives Perkins, Thompson of New Jersey, Clay, Brademas, O'Hara, William D. Ford, Quie, Ashbrook, Dellenback, and Esch.

H. Res. 423, the rule under which the bill was considered, was adopted earlier by a yea-and-nay vote of 307 yeas to 91 nays. Pages 19241–19259

Emergency Medical Services: House insisted upon its amendments to S. 504, to provide assistance and encouragement for the development of comprehensive area emergency medical services systems; and agreed to a conference asked by the Senate. Appointed as conferees: Representatives Staggers, Rogers, Satterfield, Nelsen, and Hastings. Page 19259

Calendar Wednesday: Agreed to dispense with Calendar Wednesday business of June 13. Page 19260

On a request for a separate vote, rejected an amendment providing that no funds shall be used to defray the cost of travel by the Chief of Police of the District of Columbia outside the limits of the District. Previously, while in the Committee of the Whole, the amendment was agreed to by a voice vote.

Agreed to the committee amendments.

Agreed to:

An amendment to the committee amendment that extends the restriction on using more than one-third of the funds granted for compensation of police to cover compensation of all regular law enforcement and criminal justice personnel;

An amendment that would make optional rather than mandatory the stipulation that State planning agencies and regional planning units shall include representatives of citizen, professional, and community organizations (agreed to by a recorded vote of 227 ayes to 162 noes with 1 voting present);

An amendment that would insure that the Central Intelligence Agency cannot be called in to provide training or other assistance to local law enforcement agencies;

An amendment adding language stating that nothing in the bill shall be construed to require the adoption by a grantee of a quota system or other program to achieve racial balance or to deny or discontinue a grant because of the refusal of a grantee to adopt such a quota system (agreed to by a recorded vote of 231 ayes to 161 noes).

Rejected an amendment that sought to add language to establish a law enforcement officers' grievance system and "bill of rights." Previously, a point of order against the amendment was overruled.

Agreed to certain technical amendments.

An amendment allowing a court to award a defendant reasonable court costs and fees if the defendant is on the prevailing side;

An amendment assuring that qualified local attorneys will be given preference in filling staff attorney positions;

An amendment striking language requiring that grants or contracts to provide legal assistance shall be in accordance with the ethics codes of the American Bar Association;

An amendment prohibiting legal assistance to those unemployed who refuse to seek or accept employment;

An amendment prohibiting all outside practice of law by full-time attorneys (agreed to by a division vote of 47 ayes to 43 noes);

An amendment that includes administrative advocacy in the bill's prohibition against legislative advocacy (agreed to by a recorded vote of 200 ayes to 181 noes);

An amendment prohibiting full-time attorneys of the corporation from engaging in political activities (agreed to by a recorded vote of 207 ayes to 171 noes);

An amendment that prohibits grants to or contracts with "public interest law firms" which expend 50 percent or more of their resources and time litigating issues in the interest of the majority of the public or in collective interest of the poor in lieu of 75 percent;

An amendment that provides for at least "two-thirds" of the lawyers governing legal assistance to eligible clients in lieu of a "majority" (agreed to by a division vote of 88 ayes to 70 noes);

An amendment which provides legal assistance (without parental consent) to persons under the age of 18 who are the victims of child abuse, persons in need of supervision, or in custody after the termination of a marriage or divorce;

A substitute to the previous amendment which requires a written "request" from a parent to provide legal assistance to persons under the age of 18 in lieu of "consent";

An amendment that prohibits legal services with respect to any proceeding or litigation relating to the desegregation of schools (agreed to by a recorded vote of 221 ayes to 150 noes);

An amendment striking language authorizing activities of backup research centers (agreed to by a recorded vote of 233 ayes to 139 noes with 1 voting "present");

An amendment stipulating that attorneys shall refrain from accepting fees for private gain;

An amendment prohibiting legal assistance in litigation of military amnesty cases;

An amendment prohibiting legal assistance in litigation involving desegregation in higher education;

An amendment prohibiting use of the corporation's non-Federal funds for purposes prohibited by the bill;

An amendment prohibiting assistance to indigent, abandoned, Watergate defendants; and

An amendment striking language requiring a 3-year appropriation for the corporation.

Rejected the following amendments to the committee amendment:

An amendment that required that attorneys receiving compensation under the bill must be admitted to the bar of the State in which they render legal assistance;

An amendment that sought to insert language allowing persons to bring suit against the corporation and reimbursing costs and fees to plaintiffs who win such court actions (rejected by a recorded vote of 159 ayes to 237 noes);

An amendment to the previous amendment that sought to allow law suits to insure compliance with all provisions of the bill and not just with prohibitions thereunder;

An amendment that sought to add language assuring to recipients of services the right to choose their own counsel and requiring them to reimburse their attorney in accordance with fees customary in the community (rejected by a division vote of 22 ayes to 74 noes);

A preferential motion that the committee rise and report the bill with the enacting clause stricken (rejected by a recorded vote of 91 ayes to 283 noes); and

An amendment in the nature of a substitute to the committee amendment that authorized funding for 2 years and conformed closely to the bill as reported.

The Clerk was authorized to correct section numbers and correct punctuation in the engrossment of the bill.
